Manager Commentary

The top contributors to performance year to date were Alphabet, Novo Nordisk and EssilorLuxottica.

Alphabet has reported an acceleration in organic revenue growth over the past three quarters (23%, 32%, and 57%). The company's total addressable market is not only the digitisation of traditional advertising, but also the totality of above and below the line marketing budgets and the cloud opportunity. Alphabet's long-term thinking includes a commitment to meaningful product innovation. Novo Nordisk, the leader in global diabetes and obesity, raised guidance for the second time this year with its Q2 2021 results due to a very strong US launch of its new obesity drug, Wegovy, an acceleration of the GLP-1 franchise, and better than expected biopharma performance. There are 463 million diabetics worldwide (50% diagnosed, 25% receive care and only 6% achieve glycemic control) and 650 million people living with obesity. EssilorLuxottica is the global leader in the design, manufacture and distribution of ophthalmic lenses, frames and sunglasses. Pent-up demand has resulted in a strong bounce back in revenue growth as lockdown restrictions have eased. The company closed the acquisition of GrandVision providing an opportunity to deploy an omni-channel approach world-wide. A new Board of Directors ends the corporate governance stalemate.

The top detractors year to date were MarketAxess, Reckitt Benckiser and Fanuc.

As a pioneer of bond market electronication, MarketAxess is strongly positioned to benefit from increasing penetration of electronic bond trading. Lower interest rate volatility in 2021 has temporarily put pressure on its volumes, revenues and market share and the stock has underperformed following a very strong performance in 2020.

Reckitt Benckiser is the world's leading consumer health and hygiene company. The company is lapping an exceptional performance of its hygiene division due to pandemic-related demand. Reckitt has been unable to offset accelerating cost pressures in real-time with pricing and productivity. Long-term secular drivers include urbanisation, pressure on state-funded healthcare and trends towards self-cure and self-care. Fanuc is a Japanese company that provides automation products and services including robots and computer numeric controls. A guidance upgrade at its recent Q1 2021 results brought numbers in line with consensus. The company also struck a note of caution around supply chain constraints and potential US-China tensions.
